
In science, we find things out for ourselves
We are excited, enthused and engaged about science – so are our teachers!
Everybody can take part in science lessons
Our Lady & St John's Principles of Science Education
We try things out, make mistakes and learn from them!
We practise higher order thinking skills in science.